Kantor receives Association of Division III Independents baseball honor

Nebraska Wesleyan University senior pitcher/center fielder Troy Kantor (Lincoln, Neb.) has been named the Association of Division III Independents baseball Player of the Week. Kantor threw two complete-game, six-hitters as Nebraska Wesleyan defeated a pair of regionally ranked opponents last week.

At NAIA Region III No. 4 ranked Dakota Wesleyan University on April 3, he allowed just three hits after the second inning and drove in the tying run in the top of the third, helping NWU win 4-1. Against NAIA Region III No. 6 Hastings College on April 9, Kantor gave up just one earned run in 10 innings of work and went 4-for-5 at the plate. Three of his hits tied the game on three separate occasions and his final hit in the bottom of the seventh sent the game into extra innings. NWU eventually won game one 4-3 in 10 innings.

For the week, Kantor compiled a 1.06 ERA on just 12 hits and two earned runs in 17 innings pitched. He was also 7-for-19 (.368) at the plate with a .478 on-base percentage. Kantor, who is coached by Bill Fagler, improves to 3-2 on the season while the Prairie Wolves improve to 8-13 overall after a 4-2 record last week.
