Knight earns Association of Division III Independents track award

Nebraska Wesleyan University sophomore middle distance runner Evan Knight (Keystone, Neb.) has been named the Association of Division III Independents Men's Track and Field Athlete of the Week. Knight won the 800 at the Concordia University Invitational and qualified automatically for the NCAA Div. III Outdoor Championships with a time of 1:50.92. His mark was a personal best and ranks third in Nebraska Wesleyan history. It also broke a stadium record. Knight also ran a 48.4 split on the 4x400 relay, which placed second with a time of 3:20.80. Knight is coached by Dr. Ted Bulling.
