

Student-Athlete Participation Policy

Because the Athletic Training Education Program is deeply rooted in course and clinical sequencing, normal progression is essential to the successful completion of the program. Athletic participation cannot replace the academic requirements of the Athletic Training Education Program nor infringe upon the rights of other students within the program.