

Policy title Election Volunteer Leave	Category Human Resources
Owner Human Resources	Approved by Business and Human Resources Office

Policy statement

- Employees are paid their regular salary and benefits for election official training time and for election official service on election days.

Questions about this policy and implementation procedures should be referred to the Human Resource Office.

Last revised date March 7, 2009