

Policy title	Category
Employee Records Confidentiality	Human Resources
Owner	Approved by
Human Resources	Business and Human Resources Office

Policy statement

Nebraska Wesleyan University policy is to safeguard personal employee information in its possession to ensure the confidentiality of the information.

The University maintains the right to communicate and distribute such University information as it deems necessary to conduct University operations.

Questions about this policy and implementation procedures should be referred to the Human Resource Office.

Last revised date March 7, 2009