EARN COLLEGE CREDIT NOW WITH NWU HONORS ACADEMY.

The Nebraska Wesleyan Honors Academy allows you to earn college credit while completing courses at your current high school. NWU Honors Academy offers many benefits.

---

1. Save time and money.

Pay just $95 per credit hour. Earn your college degree faster, and have more time for college activities or a second major.

2. Transfer credits nearly anywhere.

This is Nebraska's only NACEP-accredited dual credit program. The credits you earn will transfer to most U.S. colleges; all credits automatically apply to NWU.

3. Enjoy Nebraska Wesleyan benefits.

You'll have access to NWU's technology and library resources, writing and tutoring assistance and NWU events, plus take half off your AP exam fee.

4. Earn college credit from your favorite high school teachers.

High school teachers accepted as NWU instructors teach a variety of advanced courses that are as rigorous as traditional college courses.

5. Get reimbursed for 100% of your Honors Academy tuition.

When you attend Nebraska Wesleyan University as an undergraduate student, beginning Spring 2023 or after, we'll credit your first semester student account for all Honors Academy tuition you paid (excluding ACE and other outside scholarships used to pay for Honors Academy tuition).

6. Receive scholarships that average $25,000 a year.

All NWU undergraduate students in our traditional full-time program receive an average scholarship award of $25,000 a year—that's $100,000 over four years.

Scholarships are based on your GPA, ACT or SAT test scores, and/or financial need as indicated by the FAFSA. When you complete the FAFSA, use NWU's college code 002555. Nebraska Wesleyan admission and financial aid counselors are ready to meet with you to customize your scholarship award.

Drops and withdrawals

Because you are concurrently enrolled at your high school and at Nebraska Wesleyan, you must contact both institutions if you choose to drop a course.

Drop deadlines are October 7, 2022, and February 10, 2023, and can be found on your online registration confirmation and at honorsacademy.nebrwesleyan.edu.

Dropped courses do not appear on your transcript and tuition is refunded. After the drop deadlines, you may still withdraw from courses, but a "W" will appear on your transcript and you are still obligated for the tuition payment. To drop or withdraw from a course, complete the drop/add/withdraw petition at honorsacademy.nebrwesleyan.edu.
