

CAREER DEVELOPMENT 4-YEAR PLAN

	ACADEMIC	CAREER	PERSONAL/SOCIAL
FIRST-YEAR - IMAGINE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Meet with your faculty advisor regarding majors and future goals.</li> <li>• Take introductory courses to sample majors of interest.</li> <li>• Get to know your professors, actively participate in class.</li> <li>• Develop solid study habits and a good GPA.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Set up an appointment with a career counselor in the Career Center to explore academic majors and career opportunities.</li> <li>• Attend A MAJOR Event in the fall to learn about NWU majors from each department.</li> <li>• Browse the resources in the Career Center library and online at career.nebrwesleyan.edu.</li> <li>• Use the Career Assistance Network to connect with alumni working in your areas of interest (access in the Career Center).</li> <li>• Register for the JobZone to peruse open jobs and internships.</li> <li>• Keep up on events with the First Year Foundation emails sent by the Career Center.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Join at least one NWU student organization.</li> <li>• Set aside time for exciting volunteer experiences or part-time jobs.</li> <li>• Meet new friends and build campus relationships.</li> <li>• Make time for friends and family.</li> </ul>
SOPHOMORE - INVESTIGATE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Learn about career options for academic majors through faculty members.</li> <li>• Begin to solidify your major, declare by your second semester.</li> <li>• Develop an academic plan with your advisor according to degree requirements.</li> <li>• Apply good study habits, maintain a strong GPA.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Begin to think about possible internship opportunities. Attend the Internship Showcase to learn about internships of NWU students.</li> <li>• Use the Career Assistance Network to shadow or do an informational interview with an alum in your field of interest.</li> <li>• Develop and improve your resume with assistance from the Career Center. If seeking an internship, consider uploading your resume to the JobZone for employers to view.</li> <li>• Begin looking at seasonal/part-time employment related to your interest.</li> <li>• Attend Backpack to Briefcase in the spring to get an idea of potential employers and opportunities.</li> <li>• Keep up on events with the Sophomore Springboard emails sent to you by the Career Center.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Join a professional organization related to your major.</li> <li>• Take leadership roles on campus.</li> <li>• Look into studying abroad.</li> <li>• Review and reaffirm your values, interest, personality and abilities.</li> <li>• Participate in volunteer opportunities on campus or within the community.</li> </ul>
JUNIOR - INTERACT	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Talk with your advisor to make sure you're meeting academic requirements for graduation and discuss career options.</li> <li>• Look into prestigious scholarship opportunities if continuing your education.</li> <li>• Consider the possibility of an advanced degree.</li> <li>• Class topic sparked an interest? Talk to professors regarding research opportunities.</li> <li>• Maintain a solid GPA.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Research companies and work environments.</li> <li>• Discuss career concerns with a career counselor.</li> <li>• Think about taking a practice graduate/professional school entrance exam.</li> <li>• Meet NWU alumni through the Career Assistance Network to discuss transitioning to the workplace or to graduate school.</li> <li>• Continue to hone your resume and have it critiqued by a career counselor.</li> <li>• Obtain an internship to explore a career field and gain practical experience. See internship listings in the JobZone.</li> <li>• Attend or present in the Internship Showcase.</li> <li>• Attend the Backpack to Briefcase Student/Employer Reception.</li> <li>• Keep up on events with the Junior Jumpstart emails sent to you by the Career Center.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Explore post-college options.</li> <li>• Develop a list of professional references and keep in close contact.</li> <li>• Begin the application process for graduate or professional school and take entrance exams.</li> <li>• Continue to gain practical experience through activities, employment and community involvement.</li> </ul>
SENIOR - IMPLEMENT	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Meet regularly with your advisor, confirm graduation status.</li> <li>• Fill out necessary graduation forms.</li> <li>• Request letters of recommendation from faculty members.</li> <li>• Maintain a solid GPA.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Update your resume and profile in the JobZone.</li> <li>• Continue meeting with a career counselor regarding your job search or graduate school application.</li> <li>• Attend the Backpack to Briefcase Student/Employer Reception as well as other local career fairs.</li> <li>• Have your resume, cover letter and/or graduate school essays critiqued by Career Center staff.</li> <li>• Search the JobZone for full-time job listings.</li> <li>• Access employer information, graduate school resources and other job vacancy boards online.</li> <li>• Ask alumni in the Career Assistance Network about prospective employers, job hunting and relocating.</li> <li>• Keep up on events with the Senior Success emails sent to you by the Career Center.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Set aside specific time for your job search or your graduate school application process.</li> <li>• Continue to network and tell others about your plans.</li> <li>• Relocating? Visit cities of interest.</li> <li>• Tell others of your after-graduation plans, seek advice and contacts.</li> <li>• Let the Career Center know how it's going!</li> </ul>