Transfer Guide for Metropolitan Community College Students

General Education Requirements: Archway Curriculum

NEBRASKA
WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

The Archway Curriculum is NWU's nationally-recognized general education program. It is designed to enrich students' skills development within and beyond their majors throughout education. MCC students can transfer in many courses to meet Archway Curriculum requirements.

This document will help you determine which MCC courses can transfer to NWU and meet general education requirements. It is designed for the student who is undecided on a degree program, or who is interested in a program for which there is no transfer guide. If you have questions, please contact your NWU admissions counselor.

- Required coursework can vary depending on a student's degree program, transferring credit, and other factors. Ask your admissions counselor for more information.
- The University Registrar and/or respective department chair at Nebraska Wesleyan University will conduct a course-by-course evaluation of official transcripts and apply transfer courses to general education, academic major, and degree requirements.
- Courses must have a grade of C- or higher to be considered for transfer, though some programs have different requirements. See specific program requirements for more details. Courses with numbers of 09xx will not transfer.
- Students must complete a total of 126 semester hours to earn a bachelor's degree from NWU. A maximum of 96 quarter hours/64 semester hours can be transferred from MCC.
- Requirements and transfer equivalencies can change. An admissions counselor can help determine transferability of credits.
