

Nebraska Wesleyan University Transfer Guide for Mid-Plains Community College Students Traditional BSN program

This program is for traditional undergraduates seeking a BSN in conjunction with an outstanding liberal arts education. Students are admitted to the program once a year, with classes starting in August. Admission to the nursing program is a competitive, holistic process with two applications:

Step 1: Apply for admission to NWU as a transfer student and provide official transcripts

Step 2: Submit the BSN program application, available from November 1-February 1 each year.

Admission requirements for the traditional BSN program are:

- Completion of prerequisite courses with grades of C or better (see table below)
- Satisfactory performance on Nursing Admission Exam (taken at NWU prior to admission)
- Cumulative college GPA of 3.0 or above
- CPR certification for Health Care Providers
- Completion of Certified Nurse Aid (CNA) course and listing on the state registry
- Two professional references submitted online
- Successful background check, drug screen, immunization tracker and essential functions form

- Required coursework can vary based on students' degree program, transferring credit, and other factors. Requirements and transfer equivalencies can change. Ask an NWU admissions counselor for more information on transferability of credit.
- Prerequisite and nursing courses require grades of C or above, all other courses require C- or above to transfer. Courses with numbers below 1000 will not transfer.
- A maximum of 64 credit hours can be transferred from community colleges. Students must complete a total of 126 semester hours to earn a bachelor's degree from NWU.

The Archway Curriculum

Nebraska Wesleyan University's nationally-recognized general education program

NWU has designed the Archway Curriculum to enrich our students' skills development within and beyond their majors throughout their time at NWU. We want you to get the most out of your undergraduate career and still graduate on time. MPCC students can transfer in many courses to meet Archway Curriculum requirements.

Students must complete all requirements for both the Archway Curriculum and the nursing major to earn a Bachelor of Science in Nursing. MPCC students can transfer in many courses to meet these requirements.
