Student Instructions for Backpack to Briefcase

- Fill out a name tag. Include your name, major & year in school. Choose the colored dot(s) that correspond to your primary area of employment interest as indicated below:
  - Accounting & Finance (GREEN)
  - Healthcare, Social Service, Government, & Education (YELLOW)
  - Management & Administration (BLUE)
  - Marketing, Sales & Communication (RED)
  - Math, Science & Technology (PURPLE)
- Get a free professional headshot! Use this photo on your LinkedIn profile.
- All employers will wear a bright green company name tag. Attached to the tag will be ribbon(s) indicating the type(s) of opportunities they would like to discuss with students. The colors of the ribbons will also correspond to the colors indicated above. An employer may have only one ribbon or multiple ribbons depending on their needs.
- It is essential for you be proactive. If you notice that an employer's name tag bears a ribbon whose color matches your nametag, approach them, introduce yourself and offer a brief (less than one minute) introduction, giving your name, major, graduation date and area of career interest. Employers will likewise be advised to approach students whose colored dots match one of the ribbons on their (the employer's) name tag.
- If it appears as if there is a mutual interest, offer the employer a copy of your resume and ask for their business card so that you can follow up with a thank-you note.
- Talk to as many employers as you can. Remember, government and non-profits have positions requiring business functions. Do not make assumptions about employers and their opportunities; instead ask them about their opportunities.
- Each employer is assigned a student host. Their job is to help facilitate the interaction between students and employers. If you can't find a particular employer, come to the south check-in table to identify the student host assigned to that particular organization. Find them and they'll introduce you. Their job is to help you connect.
- If you lose your name tag, please stop by the registration table to make another one.

Good Luck and Happy Networking!
