

About the Artistic Director

Elaine Quilichini is recognized for her exceptional musicianship and distinguished work with choral ensembles. As a Master of Music (Kodály Emphasis), she is in demand as a clinician, lecturer, adjudicator and guest conductor across Canada, the United States, Brazil, Japan, Europe, Australia and Canary Islands.

In 1995, Ms. Quilichini founded the Calgary Girls Choir, one of Canada's most dynamic and award-winning ensembles. A notable indication of Ms. Quilichini's stature in the choral community is her choral series published by Alliance Music Publishing, Houston, Texas.

She was a recipient of the Alberta Choral Federation's 'con spirito' award for her contributions to the choral arts. Ms. Quilichini made her debut as maestro at Carnegie Hall directing the choral concert "A Tribute to Peace and Freedom."

Ms. Quilichini continues to serve on the faculty of the International Summer Academy of Choral Conducting and Music Pedagogy in Las Palmas, Canary Islands and is the Artistic Director of the Nebraska Wesleyan University and the Wichita State University summer children's choir programs.
